Description

The charm of owning a unique piece built by a "shipwright". The Maccianti shipyard was appreciated, first in Italy and then abroad, as one of the most talented builders of wooden boats: from the Maccianti shed came out of true masterpieces, gozzi and boats of all kinds that aroused the admiration of buyers. Wood, intended as a building material, had no secrets for the Maccianti. The harmony of the lines, the robustness of the construction and the perfection of the product, were of the highest level and difficult to repeat. The only owner who has taken care of the maintenance of this jewel of other times over the years. Boat for a true connoisseur.
