

Description

The Camuffo Shipyard, the oldest shipyard in the world, universally recognized, has gone through six centuries of history. For 18 generations, the Camuffo family has been renewing the values of uniqueness and exclusivity with their boats, which have earned them the nickname "Stradivarius of the Sea".

The boat is built with a high-density mahogany plywood (called super armored laminated timber). The interiors are bright and wood dominates. The finishes are simple and the boat is tasteful. Great manoeuvrability and a good quality hull guarantee excellent stability even in rough seas.
