magnum marine 35

Description

Magnum 35 built in 1973

Totally to be refitted, a historic boat that marked an important change in style and belonged to an elite of Italian jet set.

No engines, it can be furnished to your taste.

The boat can be seen in our shed 4km from the port of Lavagna and we are perfectly equipped to bring it back to its original condition in case you want to entrust us with the work, otherwise you can take the boat to other companies.
