mochi craft Mochi 51 dolphin

Description

The elegance and modernity of this yacht recall the lines and atmosphere of the 40s, when the famous lobster fishing boats, known as Lobster boats, were built on the coasts of New England.

The "dolphin" inherits the characteristic shape of the hull designed to navigate difficult seas, as well as the elegant lines that gave it balance and charm.

Its soft lines, wide bow, gently closing stern and spacious cockpit are the distinguishing features that the Mochi Craft has retained in its models.

Blue hull with two cabins and two bathrooms, as well as a crew cabin. A modification was made to the aft hangar to accommodate a larger tender.
