Description

Built by Amer Yachts Italy, Arsana is a jewel of design and technology featuring 5 guest suites, elegant sporty lines, large Jacuzzi on the bow, outstanding stabilisation and soundproofing. She can reach speeds of 27 knots whilst also has economical consumption at low speed.

She offers a spacious and bright interior thanks to oversized windows and folding balconies that welcome in the natural light. An impressive glass-encased wine cellar links the main salon to the full beam master suite on main deck.

A further 4 guest suites (2 double VIP & 2 convertible double or twin) are located on lower deck.

The vast sundeck features a bar, al fresco dining shaded by a hard top as well as adjustable lounge and seating areas. Elegant awnings can be set up to create more shade on hot summer days.

The outdoor salon on the bow offers comfortable seating and sunbathing areas whilst the "infinity style" Jacuzzi that leads to uninterrupted surrounding views.

The aft deck houses generous dining and sunbathing areas. The hydraulic swim platform allows easy access to the sea.

Various renowned designers and artists contributed to her unique decoration and furnishings: Jean Michel Vilmoth, Adel Abdessemed, Tadashi Kawamata, Charlotte Perriand, Patricia Urquiola, Artwork Master - Jacques Germain, Majd Bazerdj. The exterior design is signed by Andrea Ramasco, with naval architecture by Massimo Verme.
