Description

The first model of Rio Yachts' Max Rib Division makes its debut at the 62nd Genoa Boat Show. It is Inagua S, signed by Marino Alfani and entry level of the Inagua range that, together with the Exuma range, marks a historic passage for Rio Yachts that enters the Rib world with its 61 years of history, 141 models produced and more than 100,000 boats sold.

10.10 meters long by 3.30 meters wide, the Inagua S, in terms of external lines, has tubulars that end not with the traditional cone shape, but with a clean cut underlined by the color of the closure: the blue that has always distinguished Rio Yachts.

Walkaround able to embark 10 people the Inagua S has among other features the particular design of the console (inside it is possible to set up a day toilet) with a very inclined windshield and the T-Top supported by two thin pillars. The planned engine is two Verado 300 Mercury. Maximum speed expected 50 knots.
