Description

Charming barge sailing from 1931, has a living area of 220 m2 with its 38.54 meters long and 5.05 meters wide.

A unique bucolic setting, pleasant and silent, where life is good, where time seems to have stopped...

Calm, charm, and romance are the words that perfectly illustrate the atmosphere of this houseboat.

The living room is a space conducive to travel with its perfect blend of sweetness and poetry.

Natural, warm and simple materials make up the interior of this houseboat. A table in raw wood, solid wood, rattan armchairs, a worked metal flower pot composes this unique work...

This houseboat, entirely covered with insulating material in rock wool and maritime pine boards, consists of a spacious kitchen, extended by a beautiful terrace.

The lower floor therefore consists of a living room so relaxing, then three bedrooms each with its own bathroom with also a large space for artists.

Then on the other side, are the wheelhouse, and the independent accommodation of the sailor with his kitchen, his bedroom and a bathroom but also a very beautiful and vast workshop.
