Description

A newly designed sundeck, the new 275 LX features generous space and offers a complete and comfortable deck.

The cockpit includes a folding backrest sofa, which transforms into a sundeck using the table in front. On the latter, there are also two folding bench seats recessed in the bulwarks, while at the bow there is a third folding bench, thus completing the four sides of the table with seats.

The bow area, on the other hand, houses a large sundeck behind which there is space for the helm station with two comfortable seats.

Below deck there is an area that accommodates up to 4 people divided into two separate areas at the bow and stern, as well as a separate bathroom complete with sink and toilet.
