Description

BOAT WITH POWERFUL Honda engine EXCELLENT GENERAL CONDITION both aesthetic and maintenance, NO WORK TO BE CARRIED OUT! Good accessories for NAVIGATION support as well as for on-board entertainment.

The 690 FB Cabin Sport can also be used for long voyages along the coast, enjoying the sea at any time of the day, both during the day, taking advantage of the large sunbathing areas at the bow and stern, and at night, with a comfortable cabin where you can cook and sleep in four.

Outside, it has a double sofa to make navigation comfortable, which can be transformed into a dining or chart area. The interior of the cabin is very well designed. Here we find a large central double bed, spotlights for lighting, portholes and a hatch for interior ventilation. A second bed at the stern allows you to accommodate a couple of people to spend the night and share the pleasure of a holiday at sea.
