galeon 480 fly

Description

Experience the next level of maritime luxury with the highly anticipated debut of the Galeon 480 FLY, meticulously crafted under the visionary guidance of naval architect Tony Castro. Our main goal was to expand the deck area and accommodate abundant natural light inside by incorporating generously oversized windows on both the main and lower decks.

The flybridge is equipped with two distinct seating areas, a wet bar and a fully equipped upper helm station. With the use of carbon technology, the weight savings have allowed for more space at the top and better handling thanks to the lower center of gravity. The beloved Beach mode makes a triumphant, charming return with partially glazed balconies, effectively expanding the usable space in the cockpit when you decide to drop anchor. The aft seating will feature a retractable grille option accessible from the hydraulic platform.
