Description

Classic sailing yacht Vindö 65 MS Ketsch – special construction with comfort and character

Built in 1980, lovingly maintained and in excellent condition. This Vindö 65 MS is a special build and impresses with a spacious aft cabin and two separate toilet rooms – ideal for long cruises and comfortable living on board. The teak deck and elegant wooden superstructure have been extensively renewed, combining classic charm with modern robustness.

In the last 20 years, numerous renovations have been carried out, all of which are comprehensively documented. Highlights include a modern navigation system (2021) and a powerful Yanmar engine installed in 2015 – both of which provide modern technology on a timeless classic.

Special features:

Large aft cabin: Individual special construction with a particularly spacious aft cabin for a high level of living comfort.

2 Toilet Rooms: Extra comfort on board thanks to two separate toilet rooms.

Renewed teak deck and wooden superstructure: The teak deck and the classic wooden superstructure have been extensively overhauled in recent years and shine in full splendor.

Modernized and ready to sail:

Navigation of 2021: High-quality navigation systems ensure a safe journey at sea.
