Description

The Swan 41-041 'Trinket' stands as a fine example of the timeless Sparkman & Stephens design, showcasing the iconic craftsmanship of Nautor Swan. Built in 1974, this yacht seamlessly combines speed, performance, and cruising comfort, reflecting its origins as a fast cruiser designed to meet the high standards of the Admirals Cup regattas in the 1970s.

Over the years, 'Trinket' has been meticulously maintained, with significant refits and upgrades ensuring her optimal performance and onboard comfort. Recent works include a new Yanmar engine, standing rigging, and upgraded sails, alongside a reconditioned interior that preserves her classic charm while enhancing functionality.

Having cruised the coastal waters of the UK, the Mediterranean, and the Atlantic, 'Trinket' is in turn-key condition and ready to embark on new adventures. This yacht offers both racing heritage and the refined comforts of a cruising lifestyle, making her a versatile and highly desirable choice.
