Description

STAR YACHTING offers for sale this EOLO 650 DAY from 2011, an open motorboat designed primarily for pleasure boating and leisure activities at sea. This is a 6.5-meter-long model that combines comfort and performance, perfect for outings at sea, relaxing days, or even short coastal getaways.

Engine:

The EOLO 650 DAY is powered by a 200hp Mercury Verado outboard engine, the highest power offered, allowing it to reach comfortable and high speeds while ensuring good maneuverability.

Cabin and space:

This model is designed for days at sea, with an open and spacious cockpit. It has a large steering console, often accompanied by a well-equipped control station.

We find practical storage, a stove, a sink, a cockpit table, and a large front sundeck. It is also equipped with a cabin offering 2 berths, and Chemical Toilets.

Sea behavior:

The EOLO 650 DAY is recognized for its stability and good performance at sea. Thanks to its deep V hull, it sails efficiently even in slightly rough seas. It offers a good compromise between speed and stability, making it an excellent choice for family outings or with friends.

In summary, the 2011 EOLO 650 DAY is a versatile and high-performance motorboat, ideal for those passionate about leisure activities at sea. It combines
