DESCRIPTION

Iconic boat produced by the Italian shipyard Raffaelli Yachts, known for the quality craftsmanship and innovative design of its boats. This model represents a synthesis of performance, comfort and style, making it still a benchmark in the luxury sports flybridge segment today.

HULL

The hull volumes are generous, the bulwarks high and the roominess of the interiors benefits without sacrificing comfort.

The hull is set on a V with variable geometry, very pronounced at the bow sections, which attenuates at the stern, to allow seaworthiness suitable for offshore cruising.

The topside becomes very important towards the stern, but maintains a good balance of masses and the whole retains a certain momentum, also because the deckhouse is very elongated.

LOCATIONS

The Flying Bridge can be reached by side stairs and extends partially above the cockpit. It is equipped with an elevated steering post with screen for standing on the
