Description

Linssen Grand Sturdy 45.0 Sedan

Like all the other Sedan models in the Grand Sturdy® line, the Linssen Grand Sturdy 45.0 Sedan has a spacious saloon and the option of expanding this with a connection to the open cockpit. To involve this space even more with the outside, there is also the sliding roof which can be opened. This allows you to create a spacious environment and maintain contact with the outside while taking a seat behind the wheel in the comfortable salon. The steering position has an adjustable steering bench in both length and width and also offers a sliding door next to the steering position. Ideal for a breeze or contact with the outside of the vessel.

Large living spaces aboard the 45.0 Sedan

In addition to the spacious saloon and comfortable forward cabin with double bed, the Linssen Grand Sturdy 45.0 Sedan also offers two additional berths in the middle cabin with its own toilet and shower room. The forward cabin also has its own toilet and shower room. Extra comfort and privacy for all guests on board. The saloon has more than enough space for you and your guests. A spacious cozy U-shaped seating area with table and on the other side movable chairs and a folding table provide a large living space aboard the 45.0 Sedan. Combined with the French doors to the open cockpit, you make the living space even larger.

The integrated cockpit bench in the spacious open cockpit is a great place to relax. The standard extended saloon roof offers you protection from moments
