Marinello Eden 22 barca nuova

Description

In 1999, the "Eden" series was born from a 22-foot-long hull. An innovative boat with side steering, loved both for sea excursions and quiet family days.

Today, the boat is being renovated to meet the new needs of the customer.

A restyling that brings with it innovations both on a technical level in terms of trim and navigability, and in terms of design. Enriched and expanded, the New Eden 22 has a larger and more comfortable kitchen area, and, at the same time, the possibility arises of adding the bathroom complete with sink, toilet and hand shower under the steering console.

More space and more comfort, the perfect choice for an unforgettable maritime adventure.
