Description

Oceanis 58 was built in 2010 by the Beneteau shipyard. It is a four-cabin version, this sailboat features a powerful and elegant hull with a generous beam and wide aft sections, offering both sailing performance and ample interior space.

Teak flush deck decks and wide teak side decks, two helm stations with excellent visibility, spacious cockpit with comfortable benches and a large folding table.

Large swim platform for easy access to the water.

The interior of the Oceanis 58 has been designed by Nauta Design to provide a light and luxurious ambience.

Four cabins with four shower rooms, and one forepeak skipper cabin, elegant saloon with panoramic portholes, U-shaped bench seat and large saloon table.

Fully equipped kitchen with ample storage space, high quality woodwork and refined finishes

The Oceanis 58 is a true ocean-going sailboat, ideal for sailors looking for elegance, autonomy and ease of maneuvering. With its luxurious interior, spacious layout, it is perfect for life on board or long-distance trips in comfort and style.

After 6 years of sailing between Turkey, Greece, Italy and four Atlantic crossings, the Oceanis 58 Blue Passion is now back in the Caribbean with new sails.
