sea ray Sea ray 290 sun sport

49 000 € ALL TAX INCLUDED

Description

What makes this boat truly unique and exceptional is that it has spent most of its life in an exhibition hall. It was only launched into the water a few days each year, preserving its pristine condition. The result? A boat in outstanding condition, almost like new.

Adding to its appeal, the owner is an incredibly meticulous person who has carefully maintained both the boat and its engines.

While the phrase "excellent condition" is often overused in listings, this boat genuinely lives up to that description. It truly deserves the title.
