Description

Beautiful classic sailboat Chassiron CF 9 Built as a sloop with a polyester hull and its teak cockpit. The CHASSIRON CF is distinguished by the hybridization of wooden construction for the accommodation and superstructures with the advantages of polyester for the underwater works and therefore the hull. Renowned for its robustness and excellent marine qualities, a version appreciated by classic sailing enthusiasts.

Polyester hull in very good condition, Deck redone in 2020 - Mainsail and genoa in good condition, Balconies and electric windlass not fitted but delivered with the boat. Interior layout: 6 berths, all mahogany marquetry, kitchen in the original style, upholstery from 2020, toilet cabin redone in 2020.

For a day or for a cruise, you can experience a bygone era, that of varnished wood, old canvases, glide on the water and rediscover the charm of sailing on classic sails.
