Description

This Neel 43, which arrived in the West Indies on a cargo ship, is a modern cruising trimaran built in 2021 by the French shipyard Neel Trimarans.

It stands out for its unique combination of nautical performance, comfort of life on board with a bright and spacious interior and innovative layouts, thanks to its "cockloot" concept: a fusion between cockpit and saloon.

Designed for smaller crews offshore cruising, it offers excellent maneuverability and good performance under sail for a cruising boat.
