Description

This Fisherman offers well-designed environments, adequate spaces and an excellent hull.

At the stern we find a large platform with a retractable swim ladder and a convenient hatch leads into the large cockpit.

The cockpit has the square shape of the fisherman but is furnished with a beautiful L-shaped sofa, a folding dining table, a cabinet equipped with a sink and fridge and under the seats there are large storage lockers.

The steering area is served by two single armchairs side by side and a modern console with all the controls and electronic equipment for driving and controlling the boat and navigation.

At the bow a large mattress allows you to lie down in the sun and there is a large hatch porthole, an awning for protection from the sun and finally the electric winch and the locker with the chain well.

The boat has an excellent distribution of interior spaces with two cabins and a bathroom.

The forward cabin is open space, it is closed by a curtain and the part of the mattress closest to the dinette is raised and lowered to increase the size of the sofa or mattress as needed.

The aft cabin is placed sideways, has little space in height but the double bed is a good size.

The kitchen is equipped with 1 fridge, two gas burners, sink and microwave. The bathroom has a sink, electric marine toilet and shower space.

All the interiors are furnished with light-colored furniture that make the
