riva Aquarama special

Description

The Riva Aquarama is a luxury wooden vessel built by the famous Italian Shipyard RIVA. The production of this model and its derivatives (like the Lungo, Super, and Special) ran from 1962 until 1996. The hull was based on the Riva Tritone, an earlier model speedboat by Riva, which in turn was inspired by the American mahogany Chris Craft runabouts. Fully refitted with RIVA's standards
