Description

Although launched in 2003, this Sanlorenzo 72 is now in excellent condition, testimony to constant care and a construction quality that stands the test of time. It is a yacht that, even today, stands out for its elegance, reliability and prestige, confirming itself as one of the icons of Italian shipbuilding.

At 22 metres long and 5.60 metres wide, it offers the perfect balance between size and manoeuvrability when sailing. The GRP hull ensures robustness and stability, while the two MAN engines of 1,300 HP each guarantee remarkable performance: 28 knots of top speed and an ideal cruising speed of about 24 knots. The 5,000-litre tank gives it a range suitable for medium-range cruising, without sacrificing power. Among the strengths are the on-board equipment: double Kohler generators, air conditioning in every room, quality audio system and an entertainment system that includes a large 55" Sony screen. Outside, the teak deck, sundecks and panoramic flybridge invite you to experience the sea in total relaxation, both in moments of privacy and conviviality.

The Sanlorenzo 72 is not just a yacht, but a sailing experience that combines luxury, comfort and technology. Its impeccable preservation makes it a rare and desirable proposal for those looking for a yacht with a strong identity and timeless beauty.

Interior description

Once you cross the entrance, the atmosphere of Sanlorenzo 72 opens with an elegant breath: well-distributed spaces, natural light filtering through the large windows and a layout designed to offer well-being
