Description

The Azimut 105 Fly represents one of the most elegant and iconic examples of Italian nautical design of the 2000s, signed by one of the most renowned shipyards in the world.

With its 31 meters of overall length, this yacht combines the power and sportiness typical of Azimut's "Grande" line with the refinement and balance of the shapes designed by Stefano Righini, who took care of the exterior aesthetics.

The sleek lines of the hull and the large side windows create a dynamic and contemporary profile, while the fiberglass construction guarantees lightness and strength. Performance is entrusted to two MTU engines of 2,200 hp each, capable of pushing the boat up to 27 knots of top speed, with a comfortable cruise of around 22-24 knots.

On board, the space is articulated in a harmonious and functional way. The interiors, with attention to the smallest details, offer bright and welcoming environments, characterized by light shades, precious woods and lacquered inserts that create a warm and modern atmosphere.

The four-cabin version of this Azimut 105 offers a particularly versatile configuration: the owner's suite, large and well insulated, occupies the lower deck at full beam, with large windows and en-suite bathroom. At the bow away are the VIP double cabin and the two twin double cabins; The cabin originally intended for audio/video entertainment on the main deck has been transformed into an ironing room and comfortable service area, an ideal feature for owner's use or for the management of crewed cruises, without sacrificing the comfort of guests.
