Description

The Guy Couach 1401 Fly is one of the flagship models from a shipyard renowned for its French elegance, robustness, and attention to detail. Built with Couach's legendary expertise, it features a reliable hull, safe handling, and exceptional comfort for its size. Every detail reflects the craftsmanship of a builder celebrated for marine quality and the long-lasting durability of its yachts.

On board, the generous volumes and smart layout immediately impress. The bright salon, fully equipped galley, comfortable cabins, and spacious flybridge create an ideal environment for family or friends cruising. The interior design ensures a high quality of life on board, whether underway or at anchor, with smooth circulation and numerous spaces for relaxation.

This 1401 Fly perfectly blends power, elegance, and practicality, all with Couach's DNA: controlled performance, excellent seakeeping, and refined finishes. Based in Nice, it represents a rare opportunity to acquire a reliable, prestigious yacht perfectly suited for Mediterranean cruising. A safe, premium choice for those seeking the perfect balance of character and comfort.
