Description

Guy Couach: French Elegance and Performance

Since its founding, Guy Couach has established itself as an iconic name in high-end French boating. Renowned for elegant and robust vessels, the brand combines artisanal craftsmanship with advanced maritime technologies, offering boats that are reliable, comfortable, and high-performing. The 1401 Fly perfectly embodies this philosophy, featuring a refined design, spacious deck, and powerful engines.

Sailing the French Riviera in Style

The Guy Couach 1401 Fly is ideal for exploring the crystal-clear waters and prestigious landscapes of the French Riviera. From Cannes to Monaco, via Antibes, this yacht allows you to navigate safely while enjoying a modular cabin, panoramic flybridge, and ample relaxation areas for passengers. Its elegant style attracts attention and ensures a remarkable presence on the water.

Versatility and Potential Uses

This high-end vessel is suited to a variety of activities: family or friends' cruises, day trips to discover hidden coves and beaches, or more active outings thanks to its powerful engine. The 1401 Fly combines comfort, performance, and safety, making every Mediterranean journey an unforgettable experience.
