Description

Between 2020 and 2025, more than 50 interventions were carried out, ranging from aesthetic and functional improvements to a total update of the systems, home automation and on-board technologies.

The result is a boat that today is in excellent condition, with a superior family feeling compared to the standards of the model and a custom layout of great value. The effort required in terms of human resources, management and quality control makes this unit aligned with the required value: an opportunity for those looking for a Pershing 62 with unique characteristics, ready to go, without compromise.
