Description

This open model produced at the end of the eighties by Riva is characterized by the original red color of the hull from which it owes its name. The boat was in production from 1989 to 1993 and a total of 14 units were built.

The Turborosso has a more equipped and liveable cockpit than the previous 50 Diable model thanks to its dinette that can be converted into a comfortable sundeck.

This example is in good general condition thanks to several recent works:

- Interior upholstery and cushions redone in 2021
- New awning 2021
- New boat cover 2021

In addition, the following interventions have been carried out in the last 3 years:

- Anchor chain replacement
