Description

The Cigarette 35 "Awesome" is a design by renowned American builder/racer Don Aronow and is derived from the off-shore racing model that won the Bahamas 500 and the 1974 World Championship.

At the time, the boat was the largest that could be transported on a trolley and was available in 2 versions (sport or racing) equipped with different engines.

The boat in question is equipped with 305 hp Mercruiser engines from 2007 and is in good general condition.

Boat registered under the Maltese flag.

More information available on request.

The teak platform leads to the aft sundeck that hides the engine locker.

The cockpit is equipped with a sofa placed for the side, the pilot's seat along the starboard side and the co-pilot's seat on the opposite side.

The wooden companionway connects the area below deck equipped with a V-shaped bow bed and retractable marine toilet. To the left of the descent stairs there is a cabinet with an internal fridge.
