Description

The VZ Shipyard was founded in the 70s in the province of Treviso by shipwright Gianni Vizianello. Initially started with the production of marine plywood motoryachts, he later moved on to fiberglass, creating unique boats that can be customized at the owner's request.

This VZ 52 Fly, despite several years of activity, is like new as in 2020 it underwent some important interventions including:

- new flybridge layout with spacious L-shaped sofa and wet bar with fridge, sink and barbecue plate
- new kitchen with Corian hob, induction burners
- Modern LED lighting of the interior
- new internal and external control panel on the flybridge.
- new propellers equipped with spare propellers

The engines were rebuilt a few years ago (cleaning of exchangers, turbines, modern copper exhausts, etc.) and with only 200 hours of navigation (mainly used in the summer months).

Custom boat with interiors in excellent condition and tastefully furnished by the current owner. Very high quality craftsmanship with refined furnishing details such as the furniture paneling finished in fine briar or the mahogany top.

More than generous interior spaces with heights below deck typical of larger boats.

The yacht is equipped with all the comforts on board (air conditioning; 4 refrigerators + freezer; dishwasher; generator; desalinator; etc.) and is ideal for long-range cruises.

Every year by cutting engines, changing zinc and antifouling.
