Description

The Cranchi 41 Endurance is the ideal compact boat for fast cruising in company. There are numerous characteristics that make it particularly appreciable.

First of all, the space on board both on deck and below is very well exploited: there are large sunbathing areas both forward and aft and the cockpit that houses and a complete outdoor kitchen, a semicircular sofa and a coffee table, to fully enjoy the boat area at a more direct level contact with the sea. Inside, on the other hand, the open space solution that includes dinette and double cabin gives great airiness. A second cabin accommodates two more berths. This model is equipped with air conditioning, bow thruster, stern platform covered in teak and hydraulic gangway to improve comfort and practicality in all circumstances. A garage with electro-hydraulic opening also allows the boat's tender to be stowed inside.
