Description

Bavaria 33 cruiser shallow draft from 2006 is a sailing yacht built by Bavaria Yacht in Germany. This model is particularly appreciated by boaters looking for a boat that is easy to live with the family or with a small crew, while offering great possibilities for coastal and offshore sailing.

The Bavaria 33 cruiser offers real comfort on board for cruises from a few days to several weeks. Its design, carried out by renowned architects, favors an intuitive circulation of maneuvers and a generous living space for a sailboat of this size.

Two double cabins version, one convertible saloon and a functional bathroom, which can comfortably accommodate up to 6 people.
