Description

This Riva 68' Diabile is a latest-generation sports open yacht that interprets the concept of a day cruiser yacht in a contemporary key. The lines are taut but harmonious, with a sleek profile that expresses performance without sacrificing the elegance typical of the brand. The deck is organized in a rational way: large sunbathing area in the bow, convivial cockpit with dinette and wet bar, safe and well-sized walkways.

The engine, which is powered by high-power MAN engines, enables high speeds and stable cruising even at high speeds. The trim is precise, the response to the helm direct, with a hull designed to ensure comfort and control.

The distribution of the outdoor spaces favours livability during day trips and short cruises, while maintaining a level of construction consistent with the Riva tradition: meticulous finishes, selected materials and attention to technical details. It is a proposal aimed at an owner looking for a high-performance open, well-built and recognizable in design.

Interior description

The interiors of the Riva 68' Diabile reflect a modern and functional setting, with a layout designed to ensure cruising comfort. The main salon, located on the lower deck, is bright and well organized, with a dinette and relaxation area integrated into a linear and easily usable space.

The owner's cabin, generally amidships, offers volumes appropriate to the category, with a double bed, wardrobes and private bathroom. The guest cabins are designed to ensure privacy and autonomy, with flat
