Description

The Catana 471 is an exceptional offshore catamaran combining performance, safety and comfort for fast cruising and offshore exploration. Designed by naval architect Christophe Barreau and built by Catana SA in France, this 14.30 m overall multihull offers a true sailing experience on the open sea. Thanks to its liftable daggerboards, the Catana 471 excels upwind while remaining stable and fast over long distances. Ideal for long crossings or shorthanded or solo ocean sailing.

spacious and bright cabins, a friendly ergonomic saloon, and a functional galley: everything is designed for long-term living comfort.
