Description

Oceanis 46.1, build in 2019 by Beneteau, a modern cruising yacht combining performance, comfort, and elegance. Designed by Finot-Conq, its hull is inspired by the larger Océanis 51.1, offering generous interior volume while maintaining excellent sailing qualities.

The interior, crafted by Nauta Design, with premium finishes and abundant natural light. The saloon is spacious, and the L-shaped galley is well suited for extended cruising.

Outside, the cockpit is large and user-friendly, with twin helms, a central table, and plenty of space for lounging.

The mast positioned further aft allows better sail balance and easier maneuvering.

The Océanis 46.1 is ideal for family cruising as well as long-distance sailing.
