Description

Behind the CRANCHI brand lies one of the oldest and most solid Italian nautical industries, whose origins date back to 1870.

Such an important tradition testifies to a constant and incessant evolutionary research of models and construction techniques, supported by a well-defined qualitative path aimed at achieving excellence.

Development, the natural outlet for the quality, innovation and seriousness offered to customers, has characterized and characterizes the growth of CRANCHI, which today is consolidated in a significant and constant increase in turnover, year after year.

The perfect and almost maniacal organization that reigns in all CRANCHI factories makes it clear how much entrepreneurial capacity moves this historic brand, now in its 5th generation, which has been able to evolve and expand to become a large industry, relying solely on its own strengths. In fact, there are two strict family rules: reinvest profits to create the future, increasing the quality of the work environment and the quality of the product, and only one heir at the helm. Promoting progress is an indispensable condition for a company that wants to look to the future, and CRANCHI works to ensure that change is an expression of its entrepreneurial philosophy.

With the same, unchanged passion as always.
