Description

The Cayman 48 is the classic boat that ages well, because it is the result of a serious project and a quality-oriented construction philosophy. It is a perfect solution for both shipowning use and for a high-level charter, thanks to a configuration that is always in high demand on the market.

On the outside, the balance of proportions and the important fairing, which conveys safety even when stationary, are immediately striking. The cockpit is one of the real strengths: large, well protected by the hard top, with a large U-shaped dinette and central table, perfect for lunches, dinners and moments of relaxation in all conditions. The large glass surfaces guarantee natural light and ventilation, making the area livable even on the hottest days.

At the bow we find a generous, well-integrated and easily accessible sundeck, ideal for enjoying the roadstead in total comfort. The outdoor spaces are functional, clean, without unnecessary solutions: everything is designed for practical and continuous use.
