Description

This boat is very well maintained, always followed by a single owner and carefully maintained over time. Ready at the buoy, it represents an interesting solution for those looking for a spacious, elegant and immediately usable yacht for the season.

An icon of the Italian house designed for those who want to experience the sea with real spaces, sporty lines and the comfort of a superior category yacht. This hard top combines elegance, large exterior volumes and solid navigation, making it perfect for both owner's use and for cruises with guests.

The cockpit offers a real living area on the sea with a large outdoor table, oversized aft sundeck and hydraulic bathing platform ideal for access to the water, tender and moments of relaxation at anchor. At the bow there is a second large sunbathing area, perfect for enjoying the boat throughout the day. The sleek lines and large glass surfaces give a look that is still current and very recognizable.

High-performance engine, stable hull and easy manoeuvrability thanks to bow thrusters, hydraulic flaps, hydraulic gangway and numerous technical features dedicated to navigation and life on board. Complete electronics with GPS, plotter, depth sounder, autopilot, VHF and Raymarine instrumentation.

Equipped with internal and external refrigerators, ice maker, TV, stereo, full galley and numerous accessories for cruising, it represents a buoy-ready solution for those looking for a yacht balanced between sportiness, comfort and image.
