Description

Fast, safe, fun and with surprising volumes compared to the category to which it belongs, suitable for regattas or coastal sailing.

A daysailer with a refined design with a natural teak deck and a hull made of epoxy and carbon.

The Sarch DS6 is equipped with a large cockpit with several helm stations: two benches protected by removable gunwales and an area further aft allow full control of the boat.

Easy to transport on a special trolley and with a tilting keel.
