Description

The Itama 45 interprets the soul of the Mediterranean, and embodies the power of the myth, helping to experience the sea, not just navigate it. This 1997 Itama 45 is the perfect synthesis between the unmistakable Italian "open" design and the solid and gritty mechanics of General Motors engines. A timeless classic, perfect for those looking for sporty performance, pure elegance and the feeling of having the sea at their feet. The strengths of the boat are the timeless design characterized by sleek, sleek and iconic lines that never go out of fashion. The spacious deck is an invitation to sunshine and conviviality. The GM (General Motors) engine is the beating heart of MAIS NON: two GM engines, known for their generous torque, reliability and a sound that makes the passion for speed vibrate. The boat is almost 30 years old, but refitting and careful and constant maintenance give us a specimen that has received love and care, ready to give emotions without the thoughts of a neglected boat.
