Description:

The Delphia Escape 1150 combines stylish living comfort with well thought-out functionality.

Large windows, a bright interior in white oak and clever details create an inviting feeling of space both in the saloon and in the cabins.

In the cockpit, you can enjoy relaxing hours on board thanks to the spacious seating area, flexibly usable areas and sun protection.

Below deck, the spacious owner's cabin in the foredeck and a comfortable guest cabin aft are convincing – both with high-quality mattresses and plenty of storage space.

Two separate wet rooms provide additional comfort when travelling.

With features such as an electric windlass, complete navigation and lighting concept as well as an integrated multimedia system, the yacht is well equipped for longer trips or relaxed weekends.

A modern, very well-maintained motor yacht with plenty of space, high quality of equipment and excellent comfort – ideal for discerning owners who value quality and relaxed travel.

If you are interested, you are welcome to visit the yacht by arrangement and ask for further details of the equipment.
