Description

An open cruiser with a sporty and slender profile, the Sunseeker Malibu 47 expresses all the charm of the British production of the eighties.

A large cockpit, generous sunbathing areas and an engaging helm station make it an ideal boat to experience the sea in complete freedom. The interiors, welcoming and functional, also offer spaces suitable for cruising.

An iconic model, with a strong character and still immediately recognizable today.

All accessories are new. The engines are either serviced and overhauled. The diesel circuit is completely new, the seacocks are new and the control panel is new. The entire anti-osmosis process was carried out on the entire hull, from sandblasting to gel according to the specifications in force.

The blue cover and part of the interior upholstery are new.
