Description

The Princess V70 is one of the most iconic open yachts of her generation, combining timeless British design, exceptional seaworthiness and impressive performance. Powered by twin Caterpillar C32 engines delivering 1,675 HP each, this 2006 model offers thrilling cruising capabilities while maintaining remarkable comfort and reliability.

This particular yacht benefits from only 1,250 engine hours and has just completed a major service. The current owner has invested heavily in her maintenance, including a full shipyard period with replacement of all seacocks and through-hulls, ensuring peace of mind for her next owner. She also features brand-new exterior upholstery, giving the yacht a fresh and modern appearance throughout.

The V70 is renowned for her elegant lines, spacious cockpit layout and luxurious interior accommodation, making her the perfect yacht for entertaining family and friends or enjoying extended cruising in total comfort. With her powerful engines, refined handling and outstanding build quality, she remains one of the most desirable sporty yachts on the market today.
