The ISLAND GIPSY 40, a trawler whose reputation is well established, is presented here in its 40-foot version, with two spacious cabins and their bathrooms located at each end of the hull.

Located aft of the Flybridge, the exterior wheelhouse offers a particularly open relaxation space at the front.

The Island Gipsy 40 also offers a particularly well-built lounge with a warm atmosphere.

Powered by two 225hp Ford Lehman engines, this example is both sober and very capable in rough seas.
