Description

Hermione is not only a boat, she is part of the unique history of Grand Banks as, from 1965 to 2005, more than 1,500 Classic 42s were built, and Grand Banks established itself as the gold standard for pleasure trawlers. Hull #1 is reportedly still in service as a commercial dive boat in Sweden, a testament to the longevity of these ships. Hermione is in general good condition, with the usual maintenance works to be done. Call for more details.
